November 24, 1922. Continuing on the above matter, Operative proceeded to the Middlesex Lunchroom, arriving there at about 8.30 a.m.

Operative upon leaving the Middlesex Lunchroom visited in turn, the Walker Hotel, the railroad station, and the vicinity of George & Albany Sts. After remaining in the vicinity of George & Albany Sts for quite a time, Operative proceeded to the railroad station, and there joined Danny Kenny.

While Operative was in conversation with Danny Kenny, a woman entered the railroad station in the company of a young girl about twelve years of age. The last mentioned woman entered a telephone booth while her young girl companion remained outside holding a small dog. Danny Kenny informed Operative that the woman who entered the telephone booth was Mrs. Mills' sister, and that she was named Mrs. Whittaker, as she had married a fellow by the name of Dick Whittaker.

Upon coming from the above mentioned telephone booth, Mrs. Whittaker and her young girl companion proceeded to the street and entered an automobile and drove off; this being at about 4.15 p.m.

At about 4.35 p.m. an elderly lady came into the station and purchased about a dozen newspapers. When this woman left, Danny Kenny informed Operative that her name was Sally Peters, and that she was a great friend and chum of Mrs. Hall.

At about 5.10 p.m. Clifford Hayes joined the company of Danny Kenny and Operative. While in conversation, Hayes informed Operative that he had just returned from Somerville, and he told Operative how they tried to put something over on him. Clifford Hayes told Operative that he had been locked up for five days and that he was d--- glad to get out. Clifford Hayes told Operative that Davison did not know anything, and that he was very thick, and that when the case is over Davison will get all that is coming to him. Young Hayes further stated that Kirby is not an Officer, but that he is only an ash-
